SPEAKER: Ken Korkow

Ken Korkow was raised in a South Dakota ranching and rodeo family known for raising Rodeo Bulls, and enlisted in the Marine Corps when he was 18. After basic training, Corporal Ken Korkow was transferred directly into combat in Vietnam, and was severely wounded, receiving citations for The Navy Cross and the Purple Heart. After his medical discharge, Ken earned undergraduate and MBA degrees and became a successful land broker. During this time, Ken threw himself into work, becoming a work addict as a way to deal with war-torn memories. But it wasn't keeping away the nightmares, anguish and "survivor's guilt". He was suffering from Post-Traumatic Stress Disorder (PTSD) before there was a name for it.

During his journey, Ken had a spiritual awakening that led him to abandon his lucrative business and join a Christian marketplace ministry where he developed a successful spiritual approach that is helping thousands of other service members and veterans find peace in their lives, with The Ranch Ministry. The Ranch serves as a retreat center that helps restore minds, marriages and lives of veterans affected by PTSD.
